CODE OF ETHICS

1. I hold the health and welfare of my clients as my highest priority.
2. I commit to undertake lifelong personal development in my work.
3. I adhere to the ethical standards of the International Institute of Complementary Therapists of which I am a full member.
4. I promote full accuracy and honesty in all my communications.
5. I agree to keep all agreements that I make.
6. I take all reasonable precautions to ensure my personal boundaries and competencies do not negatively impact on the service I provide to my clients.
7. I respect and honour the rights of individuals to confidentiality and privacy.
8. I take adequate precautions at all times to keep client information private, confidential and safe at all times, except in the following exceptions:
 - a. When disclosure of information is required to prevent clear and imminent danger to the client or to others.
 - b. When there is a clear legal requirement in the country, region, or area to disclose certain types of information.
 - c. When records are subpoenaed by a court.
 - d. If I am a defendant in a civil, criminal, or disciplinary action arising from the client relationship. Information about that relationship may be disclosed as part of the proceeding.

I store all client records in a safe and secure place, maintain such records for at least seven years following the termination of services, and dispose of client records in a secure manner.

9. I respect individuals regardless of age, race, ethnicity, religion, sexual orientation, disability, language and socioeconomic status.
10. I take as many steps as necessary to look after my own physical and mental health and take all necessary steps to maximise my own wellbeing.
11. I have personally experienced the modality and methods I offer to a client. I take care not to inaccurately project my experiences with a particular modality or method onto others.
